At the immediate opening New-York was somewhat weaker than elsewhere, by reason of foreign selling in July and September, but quickly responded to the sharp advances in the West, and for the balance of the day was quite as sensitive to bullish influences as any other market. Foreign news had little effect on the market. Liverpool closed about %d net lower, which was hardiy a full response to American markets on Monday, but Paris lost 5 to 15 points. Budapest 25 points and Berlin % to 1 mark. Bromisal cabled a report on
